Girl molested by bizman, mom held for not reporting crime

Mahapuranam. Police in the Indirapuram region arrested a woman and her businessman acquaintance after a Maharashtra schoolgirl (minor) aged 12 (name withheld) allegedly attempted a drowning bid in the Hindon river in a nearby village on April 16. The girl's mother was also arrested on Sunday after detailed questioning, for not reporting the matter to the police.

In a case under Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) act, the regional station (Indirapuram station) police officer Dharmendra Sai said, "The girl's mother was trying to extort money from the businessman when the incident took place. Though the chain snatchers are behind bars, the mother continues to extort money from the accused. We had to intervene and arrest the mother."

Meanwhile, man booked under POCSO act for the Indirapuram station area, Sai said, "We have sent the girl's mother to jail. We are trying to locate her children and the person who attempted to drown the girl."

The minor girl has been shifted to Nirmala Sadan, a children's home. A sub-inspector (SI) Babu was suspended on security lapse. SP (City) is reporting the FIR to the state season.
