These Directions are applicable to all commercial Banks, NBFCs including Microfinance Institutions and Housing Finance Companies. These guidelines will be effective from April 01, 2022.

In addition to the FPC as mentioned in the above sections, the Company shall adopt the following fair practices which are specific to Microfinance Loans:

- (i) General
  - a. The FPC in vernacular language shall be displayed in office and branch premises of the Company, apart from the Company's website.
  - b. A statement shall be made in vernacular language and displayed in the premises and in loan cards articulating their commitment to transparency and fair lending practices.
  - c. Field staff shall be trained to make necessary enquiries with regard to income and existing debt of the borrowers.
  - d. Training, if any, offered to the borrowers shall be free of cost. Field staff shall be trained to offer such training and also make the borrowers fully aware of the procedure and systems related to loan / other products.
  - e. The effective rate of interest charged, and the grievance redressal system set up by the Company shall be prominently displayed in all its offices, in the literature issued by it (in vernacular language) and also on its website.
  - f. A declaration shall be made in the loan agreement and also in the FPC displayed in office, branch premises and website of the Company that it will be accountable for inappropriate behaviour by its employees or employees of the outsourced agency and shall provide timely grievance redressal.
  - g. The KYC Directions of the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) shall be complied with. Due diligence shall be carried out to ensure the repayment capacity of the borrowers.
  - h. All sanctions and disbursement of loans shall be done only at a central location and more than one individual shall be involved in this function. In addition, there shall be close supervision of the disbursement function.
  - i. Adequate steps shall be taken to ensure that the procedure for application of loan is not cumbersome and loan disbursements are done as per pre-determined time structure.

(ii) Disclosures in loan agreement / loan card

- a. The Company shall have a Board approved standard form of Microfinance loan agreement. The loan agreement shall preferably be in vernacular language.
- b. In the loan agreement, the Company shall disclose the following:
  - All the terms and conditions of the loan,
  - The pricing of the loan involves only three components viz. the interest charge, the processing charge and the insurance premium (which includes the administrative charges in respect thereof),
  - No security deposit / margin is being collected from the borrower,
  - The borrower cannot be a member of more than one SHG / JLG,
  - The moratorium period between the grant of the loan and the due date of the repayment of the first Installment,
  - An assurance that the privacy of borrower data shall be respected.
- c. The loan card shall reflect the following details:
  - Simplified factsheet on pricing including effective rate of interest charged,
  - All other terms and conditions attached to the loan,
  - Information which adequately identifies the borrower,
  - Acknowledgements by the Company of all repayments including instalments received and the final discharge,
  - The loan card shall prominently mention the grievance redressal system set up by the Company and also the name and contact number of the nodal officer,
  - Non-credit products issued shall be with full consent of the borrowers and fee structure shall be communicated in the loan card itself,
  - All entries in the loan card shall be in the vernacular language or the language as understood by the borrower.

(iii) Non-coercive methods of recovery:

- a. Recovery shall normally be made only at a central designated place. Field staff shall be allowed to make recovery at the place of residence or work of the borrower only if borrower fails to appear at central designated place on two or more successive occasions.
- b. The Company shall ensure that a Board approved policy is in place with regard to Code of Conduct by field staff and systems for their recruitment, training and supervision. The Code shall lay down minimum qualifications necessary for the field staff and shall have necessary training tools identified for them to deal with the customers. Training to field staff shall include programs to inculcate appropriate behaviour towards borrowers without adopting any abusive or coercive debt collection / recovery practices.
- c. Compensation methods for staff shall have more emphasis on areas of service, conduct of employees and borrower satisfaction than merely the number of loans mobilized and the rate of recovery. Penalties may also be imposed in cases of non-compliance by field staff with the Code of conduct. Generally, only employees and not outsourced recovery agents shall be used for recovery in sensitive areas.

15. Review of Fair Practice Code

The Managing Director shall be authorized to review and approve any modifications to the Fair Practice Code from time to time.
