Water supply may be hit as tankers won't ply from April 10

PRATIP ACHARYA MUMBAI, APRIL 7

THE MUMBAI Water Tankers Association (MWTA) has warned of suspending its services starting April 10 in protest against the civic body's notices to private ring well and borewell owners, asking them to stop supplying water to tankers and obtain a fresh licence from the Central Ground Water Authority (CGWA)

In their notices, the civic authorities also maintained that underground wells were becoming hotspots for mosquito breeding. The suspension of services may lead to a water crisis as 1.800-2.000 tanker owners in the Maharashtra capital are affiliated with MWTA.

"We are not calling for any strike, but we are forced to stop our trade. The BMC has said that if the well owners don't take an NOC (No-Objection Certificate) from CGWA, then legislative action will be taken against us. Now FIRs are being registered against our men for not having a new NOC," Ankur Sharma, spokesperson, MWTA, told The Indian Express.

"The CGWA has no office in Mumbai. They are based in Delhi, and they don't return our telephone calls. There's no scope of dialogue for us," Sharma added. According to CGWA guidelines, a licence would be issued to a well owner only if the well is situated on a land parcel having a minimum size of 200 square metres. The new guidelines also make it mandatory for every well operator to set up a flow meter for recording the flow of water, among others. Water from tankers is used in residential societies as well as in ongoing infrastructure works like the coastal road, metro, and bullet train projects. The water is also used for other important purposes like cleaning railway coaches and maintenance of public roads, lawns, and gardens,

In 2023, the city reeled under a water crisis after MWTA went on a five-day strike. The Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) supplies 3,850 million litre per day (MLD) of water against a demand of 4,200 MLD.

Tankers continue to be a key source of water in the city, especially in informal settlements.

Citizens battle heat, humidity; IMD says cooler weekend likely at 33°C

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE MUMBAI, APRIL 7

AMID A yellow alert, the city reeled under hot and humid conditions on Monday as the maximum temperature soared to 36.2 degrees Celsius. While a vellow warning will remain until Wednesday, the weather bureau has forecast a cooler week ahead as temperatures are likely to dip up to 33 degrees by April 12.

On Monday, the IMD's Santacruz observatory recorded a maximum temperature of 36.2 degrees, which is three degrees above the normal, while the Colaba coastal observatory logged highs of up to 33.6 degrees. In what left the city grappling with humidity, the recording stations also logged above normal relative humidity levels of over 80 per cent during the period. Its neighbouring pockets like Thane, meanwhile, recorded 38 degrees Monday afternoon.

The current spike in temperatures has come at a time when several regions in the country as well as Maharashtra are experiencing scorching temperatures of over 40 degrees. On Monday, data furnished by the IMD Mumbai showed that Jalgaon was the warmest city of the region at 42.5 degrees, followed by Parbhani which registered 42.1 degrees, Solapur at 42 degrees, Beed at 41.9 degrees while Malegaon recorded 41.6 degrees and Pune

Indicating that the uncomfortable spell of weather is here to stay, the IMD has issued a yellow alert of hot and humid conditions in the city between Tuesday and Wednesday in Mumbai, Thane, Palghar and Raigad. The IMD has stated the maximum temperatures are expected to rise over the next four days, followed by a gradual drop of 2 to 3 degrees thereafter across Konkan. The weather bureau has forecast highs ranging between 36 degrees to 37 degrees until Wednesday at least, which will

THREATENING CALLS, SOCIAL MEDIA BACKLASH Gynaecologist resigns from Pune hospital after woman's death

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE PUNE, APRIL 7

IN A significant development, Dr Sushrut Ghaisas, a consulting gynaecologist, stepped down from his position at Deenanath Mangeshkar Hospital. The hospital has been in the eve of a storm since Tanisha Bhise, who was in her seventh month of pregnancy, was allegedly denied admission due to the non-payment of a Rs 10 lakh deposit. Bhise later gave birth to twins at Surya Hospitals in Wakad, and due to complications was shifted to Manipal Hospital where she succumbed to irreversible brain injury.

At a media conference, Dr Dhananjay Kelkar, medical director of Deenanath Mangeshkar Hospital, said that there has been rising anger and protests over the unfortunate episode.

Dr Kelkar read out the resignation letter that said Dr Ghaisas was under tremendous mental pressure due to public outrage, threats

Dr Dhananjay Kelkar, medical director of Deenanath Mangeshkar Hospital, said that there has been rising anger and increasing protests over the unfortunate episode. Express and criticism. "Dr Ghaisas in his letter has stated that he was unable to focus on his work and was worried that all this would impact his ability to treat other patients," Dr Kelkar said. According to the letter, Dr Ghaisas was also worried about the safety of his family.

Dr Kelkar, who was accompanied by senior doctors, including Dr Ghaisas, said that the administration has forwarded the resignation to the hospital trustees and that the latter would complete his scheduled surgeries and work by Thursday. Tanisha Bhise is the wife of Sushant Bhise who is a personal secretary of BJP MLC Amit Gorkhe. Bhise's family members had claimed that Dr Ghaisas sought a deposit ahead of the patient's admission to the hospital. After her death, there were several protests at Deenanath Mangeshkar hospital and members of the BJP's omen's wing allegedly stormed into the clinic run by Dr Ghaisas's mother in Kothrud last week.

Dr Kelkar said that committees were conducting their inquiry and the administration has responded. "An advanced deposit is generally asked in cases where the hospitalisation cost that would be incurred would be more than Rs 5 or Rs 10 lakh or above. However, when I received a call from the patient's relatives, I told them to pay what they could and they would manage the costs later. The patient was not denied admission," Dr Kelkar said and denied that the pregnant woman had been prepped for a C-section and was kept waiting. Dr Kelkar said his staff was overworked and the hospital plans to train them to communicate appropriately with patients and their relatives.

Kelkar and his colleagues ended the press conference and walked out when they were asked about details regarding calls between the patient's relatives and the administration.

AN 89-YEAR-OLD woman passenger died onboard an IndiGo flight from Mumbai to Varanasi, which then made an emergency at Chhatrapati landing Sambhajinagar's Chikalthana Airport Sunday.

The incident took place onboard IndiGo flight 6E-5028, which departed from Mumbai on April 6. The elderly passenger, identified as Sushila Devi from Mirzapur in Uttar Pradesh, started feeling unwell during the journey.

According to the airline officials, as her condition deteriorated, the crew declared a medical emergency and sought priority landing at the nearest airport. The aircraft landed at Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar around 10 pm.

As the plane landed, emergency response team and medical staff at the airport hurried to check the passenger. But Sushila Devi was found dead by the time she was being taken away for further medical treatment.

Question paper leaked but SCERT says PAT exam to continue as per schedule

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE MUMBAL APRIL 7

AS THE state-wide Periodic Assessment Test (PAT) is scheduled to start on Tuesday, guestion paper of Class 9 Marathi (first language) which is scheduled for April 8 was seen to be available online on April 7, along with answers, on a YouTube channel. The Maharashtra State Council for Educational Research and Training (SCERT), which conducts PAT, is in the process of registering an FIR against the YouTube channel for the paper-leak

But SCERT confirmed that the exam will continue as per schedule with the same question paper as it is not feasible now to replace the question papers which have already been reached in schools across the state. Teachers, however, have highlighted that PAT paper leak is not limited to Class 9 Marathi paper as few other PAT papers are also seen available online.

According to SCERT, they are now looking for other papers too after knowing about such claims. Confirming the paper-leak, director of SCERT Rahul Rekhawar said, "Yes, papers of PAT examination of Class 9 are being shown on some YouTube channels. We are registering FIR against them and to close them down with the help of the police department. Examination will not be cancelled." When asked if a different question paper will now be sent to schools, Rekhawar said that paper cannot be changed now. Further urging social media users to not indulge in such acts for TRP, Rekhawar highlighted that SCERT with help from police will investigate how the YouTube channel obtained the question paper. The state-wide PAT exams are conducted for students in classes 1 to 9, with the goal of standardised assessments, particularly in government-run and aided schools. Introduced last year, the exams include common question papers for subjects like English, Mathematics, and Marathi, provided by the Maharashtra SCERT. These papers are conducted as a part of final exams of schools. While students receive regular results from their schools, their performance in these subjects is reported to SCERT, which assesses learning outcomes and recommends interventions where necessary.

The PAT exams are marred with controversy this year. First cause was the common timetable (April 8 to 25) which marked a significant change from established practice of concluding final exams by mid-April.

Schools raised alarm citing concerns that it will affect timely results which are typically out by May 1 and then parents start complaining that this change will interfere with their summer plans. Mahendra Ganpule, former vice president of the Maharashtra School Principals' Association, said, "The SCERT has failed to question papers. It is unfortunate that the evaluation of students on leaked question papers will not help in gauging actual learning outcomes, which is the basic purpose of conducting PAT."

CHIEF MINISTER Devendra Fadnavis on Mondav directed the officials to formulate a new policy to ensure employment for persons with disabilities and also start a new scheme on the lines of Ladki Bahin Yojana for them in the state.

CM: Will bring policy

challenged persons

The CM also directed officials to prepare a special housing scheme called Gharkul Scheme to provide the rightful shelter to persons with disabilities. Under the scheme, the government will help the beneficiaries who do not have their own land with the necessary land to build a house.

"They are born with disabilities or due to some reason have to face many difficulties in their lives. They have to find a way to excel in their life by overcoming their disabilities. New schemes and policies should be formulated to bring prosperity in the life of such disabled brothers," Fadnavis said while giving instructions to implement these policies and schemes effectively

The Chief Minister was speaking at a review meeting organized at Sahyadri Guest House regarding various problems of the disabled brothers.

The CM also said that a 'district divyang bhavan' will be set up to ensure such persons get all facilities under one roof.

Just like the Mukhyamantri Majhi Ladki Bahin scheme, financial aid received through Special Assistance Scheme will be credited through Direct Benefit Transfer (DBT), Fadnavis said.

"The state government is trying to make it easier for the disabled brothers in the state to get benefits, and the financial assistance of the disabled brothers will be deposited directly in the bank accounts of the beneficiaries as per the Ladki Bahin Scheme. The government is also positive about increasing the financial assistance of the disabled beneficiaries and is positive about empowering the disabled and improving their quality of life," a statement said.

VISITS INTERNATIONAL BORDER E-surveillance system along Pak border to curb infiltrations: Shah

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE JAMMU, APRIL 7

AMID A spurt in transborder movement of militants over the past few months, Union Home Minister Amit Shah Monday said that the government is deploying an electronic surveillance system along its border with Pakistan to facilitate security forces to gather information about activities from the enemy's side, and detect and dismantle cross-border tunnels to thwart infiltrations.

Shah visited the BSF's forward "Vinay Post" situated along the International Border in J&K's Hiranagar sector of Kathua district to assess the ground situation.

Addressing BSF personnel, he said that "we want to install an electronic surveillance system, having two models, along the borders". "...if anything happens (from the enemy side), you will be able to respond immediately," he said. "And at the same time, to identify and dismantle underground tunnels, technical means would be put in place," he added.

He said that work in this direction will be completed on the India-Pakistan border in three to four years. "Thereafter, this will be installed on the border with Bangladesh," he added.

Shah said many tech innovations have been put to use for detecting and destroying the crossborder tunnels. The use of such technology innovations have been seen here as well, he added. Shah commended the dedication and devotion of BSF personnel in safeguarding the country's frontiers throughout the year.

Underlining that it has always been a top priority of the Central government to support the BSF, he said that whatever plans are provided, the PM Narendra Modi-led government will always be ready to implement them. "Currently, 26 experiments are underway and within the next year, we will definitely arrive at a decision that will provide many benefits to you," he told the personnel. At the border outpost, Shah held a high-level meeting to assess the ground situation, in which L-G Governor Manoj Sinha and Union Minister Dr Jitendra

Later during the day, Shah handed over appointment letters to the family members of 10 police personnel and an engineer who were killed fighting militants in Kathua district.

The IB has become active following spurt in transborder movement of militants over the past few months. On March 27. in a day-long encounter, security forces killed two militants, however three others escaped taking cover of thick foliage and darkness at night. Four policemen were also killed when militants taking advantage of their position on a hilltop opened fire on them.

'Comrades for life': Meet the new couple in CPM Politburo, Mariam and Ashok Dhawale

NIKHILA HENRY MADURAI, APRIL 7

MARIAM DHAWALE gave a measured response when asked if her elevation to the CPI(M) Politburo, during the 24th Party Congress that was held in Tamil Nadu's Madurai and concluded on Sunday, would bring about a difference in the party. "As a woman leader, I, and others like me, bring in the gender perspective very strongly in the party and its activities," she said.

Sitting next to her, her husband and fellow Politburo member Ashok Dhawale said, "She was the first woman state (Maharashtra) general secretary of the Students' Federation of India (SFI) in the country." The Dhawales are the new couple in the newly elected Politburo of the CPI(M), at the cusp of making it big together as they always have through their activist and marital life. They have made it to the Politburo even as another couple and longstanding leaders of the party, Prakash and Brinda Karat, stepped down because of the 75-year age cut-off introduced during the Party Congress in Kannur, Kerala, three years earlier. The Karats, however, will continue to remain associated with the party as special invitees to the Central Committee.

A practising physician with an MBBS degree, Ashok Dhawale, 71, started his activist life in 1978 with the SFI when he was pursuing a master's degree in political science at the University of Mumbai (Bombay University back then). From 1981 to 1989, he served as the general secretary of the SFI's Maharashtra unit and then national vice president.

Mariam and Ashok Dhawale

Mariam Bootwala joined the SFI when she was studying in Wilson College, Mumbai, in 1979. The 64vear-old was the SFI's state general secretary and all-India vice president from 1988 to 1994.

"The base of our relationship was activism and then came love," Ashok told The Indian Express. Added Mariam, "Yes, we knew that the party mattered the most to us and we built our lives around it."

While Ashok went on to become the national president of All India Kisan Sabha (AIKS), the farmers' wing of the CPI(M) in 2017. Mariam was elected the national general secretary of All India Democratic Women's Association (AIDWA) in 2016. They still hold these two posts.

Ashok, who got elected to the Politburo in 2022, and Mariam got married in 1994 at a party office in what both referred to as a "simple ceremony - a registered marriage". "I was born a Hindu and she was born a Muslim. So, in that sense, ours was an inter-religious marriage. But, emulating Bhagat Singh, we are both atheists now," said Ashok. Mariam pointed out that they did not come from orthodox families, but their families were interested in religion being a part of their lives."But we made it clear that we wouldn't stand for it." she said In the Politburo, each one is on their own, the couple said. " am sure there will be some coordination between us. But we have our independent views. I will not have a material differ ence," said Ashok.

Like they led marches independent of each other during their student days, they would be a part of the Politburo as comrades. Mariam said. Having a partner who understands one's passions and activism really matters, according to her. "There are times when I travel for a long time, and then he travels for long time. But even if it's khichd at home, we manage without any gualms," Mariam said. He advice to women is to always look for compatibility when

SC raps UP cops: 'Absolute breakdown of rule of law'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE NEW DELHI, APRIL 7

THE SUPREME Court Monday pulled up the Uttar Pradesh police for filing criminal charges in what it said was primarily a civil dispute for allegedly not returning ₹25 lakh borrowed from a person.

The top court said there was a trend of converting civil matters into criminal cases in the state and termed it a "breakdown of the rule of law".

The Supreme Court was hearing an appeal challenging the Allahabad High Court decision dismissing the plea to quash an FIR against petitioners Debu Singh and Deepak Singh who are facing charges of criminal breach of trust, criminal intimidation and conspiracy. "This is wrong what is happening in UP... Day in and day out, civil matters are being converted into criminal... This is an absolute breakdown of the rule of law," Chief Justice of India Sanjiv Khanna, presiding over a three-judge bench, said.

The bench, also comprising Justices Sanjay Kumar and K V Viswanathan, said this was contrary to its May 2024 direction in the case of Sharif Ahmed vs State of Uttar Pradesh, wherein it laid down that the investigating officer must ensure that the chargesheet contains clear and complete entries of all columns, so that the court can clearly un-date of maturity. The payment will be made through NEFT or RTGS or account payee equivalent derstand which crime has been committed by which accused and what is the material evidence available on the file.

"The order taking cognizance, the summoning order as well as the chargesheet filed are clearly contrary to the decision in Sharif Ahmed and others Vs state of UP. In view of this, we would require the Director General of Police of Uttar Pradesh as well as the House Officer/ Station Investigation Officer of the police station to file an affidavit showing compliance with the directions given in the judgment," the bench said in the order.

The bench directed that the affidavit be filed within two weeks and ordered that "the proceedings in trial court will remain stayed against all accused". "Proceedings under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, which are not the subject matter of the present petition, shall continue," said the top court bench.

As per the prosecution, the petitioners' father, Baljeet Singh, who had a scrap business, had borrowed ₹25 lakh from Deepak Behl. Baljeet refused to return the money at the promised time, and when Behl demanded it back, the former allegedly threatened Behl that he and his sons would "burn him alive".

Appearing for the father-son duo, advocate Chand Qureshi submitted that the Allahabad High Court dismissed their plea closed commissioning of cogniz able offence, and, therefore, the prayer could not be entertained. The CJI said, "Something strange is happening day in and day out in Uttar Pradesh. Lawyers have forgotten there is some civil

to quash the FIR, saying it dis

jurisdiction also." The CJI remarked orally that the court is "going to haul up, probably initiate contempt proceedings against the IO. I am going to ask the DGP to initiate disciplinary proceedings. This is wrong. It (direc tions in Sharif Ahmed case) has to be simply enforced." The bench ordered the DGP and the IO to file af fidavits explaining the process and whether the directions in the Sharif Ahmad case were followed

From Gujarat, Cong will signal its golden past: Eyes on AICC meet

MANOJCG AHMEDABAD, APRIL 7

CONGRESS LEADERS from across the country will converge in Ahmedabad in Gujarat - a state which it has not won in three long decades - and brainstorm over the party's immediate political course over the next two days. The hope is to shed the listlessness and gloom that has engulfed the party after back-toback Assembly poll routs, which followed a self-declared and self-projected LS election high.

Congress has been out of power in Gujarat since 1995 – Sonia Gandhi was yet to enter politics then. The last time an AICC session was held in Gujarat was over six decades ago, in 1961, in Bhavnagar There will be more symbolism at play. The extended Working Committee meeting, on Tuesday, will be held at the Sardar Patel Memorial while AICC will meet the next day on the banks of the Sabarmati river between Sabarmati Ashram and Kochrab Ashram.

Leader after leader is expected to underline that while BJP may be laying claim to Patel's legacy, it was the latter who banned the RSS – its ideological fountainhead - following the assassination of Mahatma Gandhi. The message is that Congress is resolving to take on BJP from the land of Mahatma and the Sardar.

Incidentally, four months ago, Congress held a meeting of its Working Committee in Belagavi, coinciding with the 100th anniversary of a Congress session held there presided over by Mahatma Gandhi. That meeting too was meant to remind itself and the country about the milestones in the Congress's long history and its lead role in the freedom movement - unlike the BIP.

But all this symbolism notwithstanding, the best that party functionaries are expecting is a reassurance from the top leadership that the Congress is on the right course, and some hint about action in the present, particularly the narrative to adopt against the BJP. Party leaders have been talking in private about the need to choose battles that resonate with the public instead of opposing anything and everything that the government and PM Narendra Modi say and do. There is also hope the session may shed some light on INDIA bloc, which is threatening to become a flash in the pan after the bright LS poll start.

At the same time, there is a resignation that their wait for clarity on both these key issues may not end anytime soon. An AICC session's large and open format is hardly the right platform to discuss organisational reforms. And, even if the party chose to go there, leaders have the disappointing experience of the 2022 Udaipur meeting behind them. Most of what the party resolved so as to revitalize the organisation at that meeting lies forgotten three years hence.

Some of the Udaipur resolutions were ambitious – setting a limit of five years on terms to give new people an opportunity, implementing the principles of "one person, one post" and "one family, one ticket", and reserving half of the positions in all committees, from the CWC to block and mandal level, to those below the age of 50. None of this has been met, though some consider the recent meeting of the leadership with District Congress Committee members from across the country as a good first step.

But even the low-hanging fruits have remained out of reach. Such as the declaration to create three new departments at the national level – a Public Insight Department to gauge the mood of the people continuously, a National Training Institute, and an AICC Election Management Department to ensure preparedness well in advance for polls.

Interestingly, Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge had declared 2025

as the year of organisational empower ment for the party.

Since the party hasn't done the work a leader said, it remains clueless about what is the alternative model it is offering to the people compared to BJP. "We can't be against everything, we need to be for something. But what is that something needs to be explained and should be convincing," the leader said. He added that the hope is that some sort of a vision will be laid out at the Ahmedabad AICC session. "Otherwise, it is meaningless. What is our story? What is our direction?"

Sources said the resolutions being planned will address current challenges and topics such as inflation, paucity of jobs, the state of the economy, issues of farmers, social justice, foreign policy, "attacks on the Constitution" and religious divisions and challenges. Randeep Suriewala, the head of the drafting committee, is expected to present a working sheet to the CWCTuesday, which will decide whether to have an omnibus resolution or separate ones issue wise.

As per another leader, they are reconciled to not much changing. "Most of the leaders believe nothing extraordinary will come out of the session. The Assembly election defeats have injected a sense of despondency. So we will all be together again, there will be speeches, even rousing ones, resolutions to fight the BJP/RSS," he said. At the same time, he added: "It is better than nothing. It may at best boost the sagging morale of the party."

Karnataka Home Minister on molestation video: 'Such incidents happen in big city'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE BENGALURU, APRIL 7

A DAY after the video of a woman being molested in Bengaluru went viral on social media, Home Minister G Parameshwara called it an "isolated incident" and said "such incidents take place once in a while in such a big city", kicking up a furore with the BIP demanding that Congress leaders Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra seek Parameshwara's resignation. Parameshwara said that he was in touch with Bengaluru City Police Commissioner and asked him to be careful and ensure such incidents don't recur.

"Beats should be more effective, monitoring should be done and there must be regular patrolling, we tell everyday. But, when such isolated incidents happen, it attracts people's attention," he said, maintaining that the police were working continuously to keep the city peaceful. "But such incidents do take place once in a while in such a big city,," he said.

BJP national spokesperson Shehzad Poonawalla alleged that Parameshwara is a "serial offender". He said, "Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra should seek resignation from G Parameshwara." Poonawalla cited several cases of crimes against women, including the gangrape of an Israeli tourist, to target the state government and said several Congress leaders have made such provocative statements.
