Ambedkar says Bhide's attack on Gandhi is part of agenda by RSS, BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE MUMBAI, JULY 28

THE VANCHIT Bahujan Aghadi (VBA) president Prakash Ambedkar Friday said the derogatory remarks against Mahatma Gandhi by right wing activist Sambhaji Bhide was an outcome of political patronage he has enjoyed from the RSS and the BJP.

"What else does one expect from Bhide? He is pursuing the hidden agenda of right wing which is to wipe out the freedom movement and its leaders... RSS and its related outfits had no role in the country's Independence. Now they want to replace the freedom movement heroes with their ideologues," Ambedkar told The Indian Express.

On Thursday, at a public meet ing in Amravati, Bhide allegedly made objectionable remarks about Mahatma Gandhi, following which state Congress secretary Nandkishore Kuyate filed a police complaint. "Mahatma Gandhi is already reverred in India as Father of Nation. By attacking Mahatma Gandhi the right wing cannot dent his image... The RSS-BJP and right wing outfits will only expose themselves," he said.

The VBA chief said that Bhide always got away because ruling parties don't take any action against him or his outfit. "During the Bhima Koregaon riots the police officer had pointed to the role of Bhide and Milind Ekbote. But

Cong seeks Bhide's arrest for questioning Gandhi's lineage

Mumbai: The Congress on Friday sought the arrest of Hindutva activist Sambhaji Bhide after he allegedly made a statement questioning the lineage of Mahatma Gandhi

"In Amaravati, a person called Sambhaji Bhide made a derogatory remark against the Father of the Nation that could spread hatred in the society. This person must be arrested immediately," former Maharashtra Chief Minister Prithviraj Chavan said in the state Assembly.

Sambhaji Bhide allegedly made the derogatory remarks at an event in Maharashtra's Amravati recently. Chief Minister Eknath Shinde said that the government will look into the statement made by Bhide before taking any action.

Bhide is a prominent right wing activist with a string of controversies to his credit. In his late 80s now, he was an active worker of the RSS before he formed his own Hindu outfit Shri Shivpratishthan Hindusthan in the 1980s. In January 2014, Narendra Modi, then chief minister of Gujarat and BJP's prime ministerial candidate,

Will he, won't he? Ajit Pawar's long wait for chief minister's post

SHUBHANGI KHAPRE MUMBAI, JULY 28

ON JULY 2, when the Nationalist Congress Party led by Ajit Pawar joined the BJP-Shiv Sena alliance in Maharashtra, it gave credence to speculation that he would replace Eknath Shinde as the chief minister. Why else would NCP's front-runner for the CM's post form an alliance with the BIP? Nearly a month later, the question on everybody's mind is: What's next for Ajit Pawar? Has he reconciled to the role of deputy CM or is the CM option still open?

"Ajit Pawar will become the CM today, tomorrow or day after tomorrow. It is just a matter of time," senior NCP leader Praful Patel said on Thursday. "When I say tomorrow, it is not exactly that...what I mean is, Ajit Pawar will become CM in the future. After all, he has been leading the party for several years. He is an able leader who has proved his mettle. He is among the leaders who work relentlessly. And anybody who works and delivers, rises to the highest post," the former Union minister said. However, Patel was guick to add, "Currently the CM seat is not vacant. So, why discuss it?'

When Ajit Pawar led his faction to join the BJP-Shiv Sena alliance, his followers believed he was promised the CM post. But Ajit Pawar took the oath as deputy CM and ensured plum portfolios for his colleagues: Dilip Walse-Patil (cooperation), Dhananjay Munde (agriculture), Chhagan Bhujbal (food and civil supplies), Aditi Tatkare (women and child welfare) etc.

Despite Praful Patel's statement, however, Ajit Pawar is unlikely to be elevated to the coveted post immediately.

"There will be no change of guard in Maharashtra. Eknath Shinde will continue as CM," Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis had said a couple of days ago, adding, "I am making such a statement with full authority being the leader of the largest party, BJP." Ironically, it is Fadnavis who had to sacrifice his posts for the sake of forming alliances first, the chief minister's post to Shinde, and now. the finance portfolio to Ajit Pawar. Reflecting on the CM debate, a senior BJP functionary said, "The BJP central leadership does not act in haste. Every decision is carefully weighed and executed. It was the central leadership that gave the nod to Eknath Shinde's leadership in Maharashtra. After Operation Lotus and Shinde's rebellion, when he was made chief minister, Shinde was reportedly promised that he would complete a full term of 2.5 years and that the BJP would contest Lok Sabha and state Assembly polls under his leadership.

Although the BJP has woken up to the realisation that the Shinde Sena has not been able to deliver as expected, it finds itself in a Catch-22 situation. Any attempt to distance the Shinde Sena would raise questions about the BJP's commitment to its allies. This is probably what prompted the BJP to get the NCP into its fold while retaining the Shinde Sena.

With the Ajit Pawar-led NCP in its camp, the BJP hopes to make deep inroads into western Maharashtra with 11 Lok Sabha seats and 70 Assembly seats. Maharashtra has 48 Lok Sabha seats and 288 Assembly seats.

BJP insiders reveal Ajit Pawar has promised to deliver excellent electoral results and the party has set the ambitious target of 45-plus Lok Sabha seats and 230-plus Assembly seats. Adding to the drama, in the last two weeks, Ajit Pawar and other senior party leaders have also been spotted cosying up to the Sharad Pawar-led faction.

On his part, Sharad Pawar has refused to associate with the BJP citing ideological differences. But developments in the last two weeks indicate that relations between the two are far from frosty.

During the monsoon session, Sunil Tatkare, the newly appointed state president of Ajit Pawar-led NCP, was seen chatting with in-house rival state NCP chief Jayant Patil of the Sharad Pawar NCP faction. Tatkare and Patil shook hands. embraced each other and were seen laughing together, leading many to wonder if the NCP was divided after all.

"When Ajit Pawar took oath, I had said the first team of NCP has come to BJP. Now. I say the next will follow soon.' MNS president Raj Thackeray had said.

The Sharad Pawar faction has been quick to deny such speculation. Admitting that nothing is impossible in politics, insiders say that it is likely that the BJP leadership has asked Ajit Pawar to deliver results in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections. The Assembly polls will be held after six months. "If the election results are such that the BJP cannot form a government without NCP's support, it will have to concede the CM post to Ajit Pawar," a political strategist said.

form 3 lakes: study

ESHAROY NEW DELHI, JULY 28

A NEW study by scientists of Wadia Institute of Himalayan Geology has found that three glacial lakes are likely to form around Parkachik Glacier in Ladakh due to rapid ice melt. The glacial melt is worrying as it not only increases chances of glacial lake outbursts but can also lead to paucity of water, glaciers being the region's primary source of water.

The study, published by Cambridge University Press, is based on satellite imagery between 1971-2021 and supplemented by extensive field surveys between 2015-2021. The group of four scientists, led by Dr Manish Mehta, has found that the glacier retreat varied between 1971 and 2021. Remote sensing data shows that the glacier retreated at an average rate of around two metres per annum between 1971 and 1999, whereas between 1999 and 2021, the retreat

Bright spot on Pawar NCP's horizon, as grand nephew Rohit steps up but who is going to stop? Entire

SHUBHANGI KHAPRE MUMBAI, JULY 28

AT THE crux of the feud in the Pawar clan that led to the split of the Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) earlier this month is the question of succession. Living in the shadows of his uncle and NCP chief Sharad Pawar for too long, Ajit Pawar longed to fulfil his political ambitions. And his desires also extended to seeing his son Parth become an established political player.

But Sharad Pawar had other plans, and his decision to not contest the 2019 Lok Sabha elections was attributed to Ajit's insistence on fielding Parth from Maval in Pune district. When Parth lost, it added to the bad blood in the family.

But there was another thorn on Ajit's side: Pawar Senior's preference for grand nephew Rohit Pawar who, unlike Parth, managed to win the Assembly election in 2019, defeating Cabinet minister Ram Shinde in Karjat-Jamkhed in Ahmednagar district, till then considered a BJP stronghold.

Rohit, who has sided with his granduncle in the fight for the party, has taken an even more aggressive public posture against the state government in recent weeks. Earlier this week, he staged a sitin at the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj statue at the Vidhan Bhavan premises in Mumbai amid rainfall, demanding industrial development in his constituency. Rohit claimed that Industries Minister Uday Samant had kept him waiting for over four-and-a-half hours despite agreeing to meet him. This, the NCP MLA claimed, revealed the "careless attitude" of the state government towards unemployed youth.

As his rain-soaked images went viral and his supporters hailed him, Rohit's comments drew a sharp reaction from Aiit Pawar. "Uday Samant had already acknowledged his letter and promised to call a meeting. It is just one week. You don't expect an MLA to protest like this," the Deputy Chief Minister said in the state Assembly.

To cool things down, BJP minister Girish Mahajan persuaded Rohit to call off the protest after assuring him that his concerns would be addressed.

"I represent Karjat-Jamkhed. I raised the issue of industrial development and employment for the youth," Rohit said. "The government has assured it will convene a meeting on Tuesday. But if they fail to keep their promise, the youths will show their might."

On Friday, Rohit met his uncle at the latter's chamber in the Assembly during the ongoing Monsoon session.

As Sharad Pawar goes about picking up the pieces after Ajit's rebellion left it depleted and struggling, Rohit seems to be at the centre of the rebuilding process, as exemplified by the Vidhan Bhavan protest."Struggle lies ahead...

21-member Opp team to visit Manipur

To leave for violence-hit state today, plan to meet Gov Uikey tomorrow

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE NEW DELHI, JULY 28

AHEAD OF the much-awaited discussion in the Lok Sabha on a no-confidence motion moved by the Opposition INDIA alliance against the Government, a 21-member multi-party delegation of MPs of the Opposition bloc will visit the violence-hit regions of Manipur and the relief camps on Saturday and Sunday.

The delegations will have MPs from 16 parties. Ahead of their visit. Congress deputy leader in Lok Sabha Gaurav Gogoi, a member of the delegation, demanded an inquiry under a retired Supreme Court judge into the violence that had rocked Manipur.

The visit is aimed at mounting pressure on the Government, which had been stonewalling Opposition demands for a suo motu statement by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the Manipur situation.

The Opposition wanted to get a first hand account of the situation in Manipur, interacting with those affected and visiting the areas that were hit by the bloody ethnic violence before the discus-

The delegation would visit the affected areas and people both in the valley and the hills. It would also visit two relief camps in both the places and assess the situation themselves, Congress MP and the party's whip in Rajya Sabha Naseer Hussain said

Sources said the Opposition bloc had written to Manipur Chief Minister N Biren Singh, who allowed the delegation to visit the state. The delegation would be meeting Manipur Governor Anusuiya Uikey on Sunday morning, Hussain said. He said MPs have sought to use helicopters there and if allowed, they will be able to visit far-flung areas of the Churachandpur, where fresh violence has taken place. 'We have got permission from the state government to visit the affected areas and also the relief camps. We have also got permission to meet the Governor, who has allowed time to the delegation on Sunday," Hussain told reporters. The delegation will include Congress leader in Lok Sabha

Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury and his party colleagues Gogoi, Kodikunnil Suresh and Phulo Devi Netam besides TMC's Sushmita Dev, JMM's Mahua Maji, DMK's Kanimozhi, NCP's Mohammad Faizal, Jayant Chaudhary of RLD, Manoj Kumar Jha of RJD, N K Premachandran of RSP and T

Thirumavalavan of the VCK. The other members of the delegation are JD(U) chief Rajiv Ranjan (Lalan) Singh and his party colleague Aneel Prasad Hegde, CPI's Sandosh Kumar, CPI(M)'s A A Rahim, Samajwadi Party's Javed Ali Khan, IUML's E T Mohammed Basheer, AAP's Sushil Gupta, Arvind Sawant (Shiv Sena-Uddhav Thackeray)

D Ravikumar (DMK). Dev said the Opposition delegation wants to give the message that "we are with the people of Manipur".

"We are concerned, we want peace to return... the government has failed, so we want to go there and see what solution can be found," she said. DMK leader T R Baalu said the Opposition delegation will be leaving for Manipur Saturday morning and will find out what went wrong, the extent of damage and loss of lives and property.

FOUR YEARS after the government told Parliament that it would collect information from the Election Commission about possible discrepancies between the Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs) and Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trail (VVPAT) tallies during the 2019 elections, a Parliamentary panel this week noted that the reply was yet to be provided, adding that identifying such issues was necessary for the security of the voting process. Weekly insight into what's changing in national politics – and why

THE SINGLE-IUDGE verdict which sparked off the protests that led to violence in Manipur is a reminder how big doors often swing on little hinges.

There have been court verdicts in the past that have unleashed political maelstroms in the country. The Allahabad High Court's judgment on June 12, 1975, which disqualified the then prime minister Indira Gandhi from Parliament for electoral malpractices and led her to impose the 19-month Emergency, culminated in her defeat in 1977. bringing to power a united opposition Janata government.

In April 1985 came the initially innocuous Shah Bano verdict. The court gave relief of a paltry sum of Rs 25 a month to a 62-year-old Muslim woman, divorced after 45 years of marriage by her husband by pronouncing talaq. The protests among the Muslim community led then PM Rajiv Gandhi to go in for a law to undo the judgment, and then, to placate the Hindu community irate over this, to open the locks enabling worship at the disputed Babri Masjid site

This changed the trajectory of Indian politics over the 30 years that followed, leading to the rise and rise of the BIP.

The court directive that was the immediate trigger for the Manipur violence asked the state government to consider giving Scheduled Tribe status to the Meitei community in the state. The Kuki tribal community protested, and the clashes between them since have left around 150 people dead, several houses burnt, with the state and Central governments unable to bring the situation under control even three months later. A video of Kuki tribal women paraded naked and sexually assaulted is something the country will take a long time to live down.

The judgment is now on hold, while the government said on Thursday that it has decided to hand over the probe into the case to the CBI, and to hold the trial outside Manipur.

Both these steps, read between the lines, betray a lack of confidence by the Modi government in the state administration run by its own BIP in Manipur. And yet the Centre has fought shy of sacking Chief Minister N Biren Singh, as demanded by many so as to ensure accountability, particularly after he tried to justify the delay in taking action by saying that "over 6.000 FIRs" had been filed across the state

Many feel the conflagration could have been defused had the Centre sent him packing, or resorted to President's rule, though Article 356 is a double-edged sword. Once you go down that route, there is no end to its use in other states as seen in the past. The trouble is that Biren Singh has become a hero to his Meitei community, and the situation, by design or by default, is sharply polarised along Meitei-Kuki lines today, and could benefit the BJP politically in Manipur, with its ripple effects felt in other states like Assam and Tripura, where faultlines exist. (The three states account for 18 out of 25 Lok Sabha seats in the Northeast.)

It has mystified many as to why Prime Minister Narendra Modi chose to keep mum on Manipur for nearly three months, till the video of the sexual assault emerged. One of the main lines of attack by the BIP against this predecessor, Manmohan Singh, was that he kept "mum" as Sonia Gandhi led the show. A few sentences by Modi, even a brief appeal for peace, might have brought down the temperatures in Manipur, his critics say

The newly formed 26-party Opposition alliance I.N.D.I.A has made his silence a political stick to beat him with, not allowing Parliament to function till he speaks on the floor of the House.

Those close to the establishment forward several explanations for the PM's silence, including that he does not act under pressure of the Opposition as that would make him come across as a weak leader.

The more cynical among them say that at the end of the day, as unfortunate as the Manipur situation may be, it is not likely to resonate in heartland India, and that the ruling party hopes to ride the storm.

Shah launches Annamalai's padayatra, key allies skip event

ARUN JANARDHANAN CHENNAI, JULY 28

UNION HOME Minister Amit Shah on Friday inaugurated Tamil Nadu BJP president K Annamalai's 'En Mann, En Makkal (my land, my people)' Padyatra, hailing it as a "political pilgrimage" aimed at spreading Tamil culture worldwide, exposing DMK's alleged corruption and promoting Prime Minister Narendra Modi's achievements in the state.

The mega event was marked by the absence of significant NDA allies - the PMK and the DMDK. The AIADMK, a key ally, had sent a former minister as representative, hinting at a cold political response.

"This En Man, En Makkal is not a mere political padyatra," Shah declared in his speech. "It aims to take the legacy of Tamil all over the world, to annihilate family dynasty politics, to save Tamil Nadu from corruption, and to reinforce the law and order system in the Annamalai's foot march is expected to cover 700 km, touching upon 234 constituencies. Shah emphasised that the padyatra's purpose was to "strengthen Tamil culture" and convey "the messages of PM Modi". He praised Modi's promotion of Tamil language, recalling several instances such as his reference to Tamil in the UN General Council. and releasing Thirukkural in the local language of Papua New Guinea.

"In the 2024 elections, BJP and all our allies on stage will be elected to Delhi to rule India. Shah said. He also made pointed accusations of corruption against the DMK and the Congress. The minister asked the crowd, "Let me ask the Tamil people, do you think Kashmir is ours or not? Speak loudly? Kashmir is ours or not?" The question was met with a resounding agreement from the audience. This was a call to a shared national sentiment and a critique of the Opposition parties, which, Shah claimed, criticised in the third week of August in Modi's actions in Kashmir as well as the surgical strikes.

ties who facilitated the killing of Tamils in Sri Lanka too. This entire Opposition gang in India works for their own families, not the country," Shah said. "Wherever you (the Opposition) go for votes, people will be reminded of the massive corruption you have committed." Shah warned. He cited the Commonwealth Games, the 2G scam, submarine and helicopter scams as instances that the electorate would remember. Throughout his speech, Shah promoted the padyatra as a journey of cultural and political revival, and one that embodies the BJP's commitment to Tamil Nadu's future. Despite the enthusiasm from BJP leaders, AIADMK general secretary Edappadi K Palaniswami opted out of the event and sent former minister RBUdayakumar as his representative. Similarly, PMK president Anbumani Ramadoss and DMDK leader Premalatha Vijayakanth, two other key allies of BJP in Tamil Nadu, were not present at the inauguration. At a time when the BJP is handling the internal crisis in AIADMK and supporting the official faction led by Palaniswami, former AIADMK leader and AMMK chief TTV Dhinakaran said he was not a part of the NDA, hinting at a deepening chasm within the alliance. Dhinakaran's statement indicated that the BIP is still confused about having him on board as the party had targeted him and his aunt, V K Sasikala, after J Jayalalithaa's death in 2017, as a kev enemy. As Dhinakaran is working along with another AIADMK rebel leader O Panneerselvam now, both of them are expected to be part of the NDA alliance before 2024 polls.

Coal scam smudges Suryakant Tiwari, Chhattisgarh's golden boy, friend-to-all

JAYPRAKASHSNAIDU RAIPUR, JULY 28

THE ALLEGED kingpin of a coal levy scam in Chhattisgarh, in which the Enforcement Directorate has arrested two IAS officers and implicated "the entire state machinery", Suryakant Tiwari is a politician-turnedbusinessman known for managing to always stay on the right side of power.

The 50-year-old who tried his hand at politics before turning full time to business can claim friends everywhere across factions in the Congress, in the party floated by Ajit Jogi, as well as in the opposition BJP.

The ED claims Tiwari as the mastermind behind a Rs 540 crore scam in the state, involving levying of Rs 25 per tonne over and above the legal amount fixed for coal delivery orders by South Eastern Coalfield Limited, on entities lifting and transporting coal Chhattisgarh. coal throughout

Apart from Tiwari, his mother Kailash, brother Rajnikant, uncle Laxmikant and other associates are accused in the ED case.

Born into a family of lawyers in Mahasamund district, Tiwari was first noticed in his 20s. as one of the hangers-on around the late Congress stalwart, Vidya Charan Shukla. Soon, he had grown close to then Congress leader Ajit Jogi. This proved fortuitous as, after Madhya Pradesh split and Mahasamund became part of the coal-rich Chhattisgarh, Jogi became the first CM of the new state in 2000.

Tiwari further planted his feet in the state's politics through marriage to the daughter of a

Bihar govt wants students to return to govt schools from private coaching, announces reforms

SANTOSH SINGH PATNA, JULY 28

ACKNOWLEDGING THE reality of government school students taking private coaching classes for maths, science, English and computers, Bihar's education department has decided to computerise over 37,000 middle, secondary and higher secondary schools. It will also arrange special classes during school hours for secondary and higher secondary students

The state government will start free of cost coaching for medical and engineering entrance examinations, acknowledging that a shortage of teachers in English, maths and science has "forced students to take coaching classes".

Since 1st July, Bihar education department additional chief secretary, KK Pathak, has launched an education reforms drive by conducting regular inspections at over 75,000 schools including 9,000 sec-power in Chhattisgarh. After a few bumps at the beginning, when the Congress kept him at arm's length, Tiwari again managed to get himself in the good books of the party. The cracks within the Congress unit facilitated Tiwari's re-entry.

He allegedly lured government functionaries into the coal levy scam telling them that a lot of coal was stolen by traders anyway. The ED has alleged that the Tiwari-led syndicate made Rs 540 crore in just 16 months, and that senior bureaucrats and police officers were involved, with some of the money diverted to leaders to help fight elections. As per the agency's "breakup", Rs 52 crore went to a senior politician of a political party, Rs 4 crore was the pay-off to MLAs in the state and Rs 6 crore to ex-MLAs and politicians.

The ED claims to have seized Rs 24 crore worth of properties in Mahasamund and Raipur in Tiwari's name, apart from cash and jewellery. The businessman claims no link to the seizures. Since his arrest on October 29 last year, both the BJP and Congress have been trying to distance themselves from Tiwari, pointing fingers at the other side. Former Cabinet minister Rajesh Munat posted photos on his Twitter handle showing Congress CM Bhupesh Baghel visiting Tiwari while he was at hospital, feeding him cake. Another photo showed Tiwari posing with minister Shivkumar Dahariya at the time CM, Raman Singh. spokesperson. JCC(J) Bhagwanu Nayak says: "To my knowledge, Tiwari was never part of our party. Maybe, on a social level, people in our party knew him.

Sushil Anand Shukla, chief of the Congress media cell in Chhattisgarh, told The Indian Express: "It's true that Tiwari was with the Congress, but this was 20 years ago. He left and got close to multiple other parties. The party has nothing to do with Tiwari.'

On photos of Tiwari with BJP leaders, Munat said: "Knowing and meeting Tiwari as politicians and having him in the party are two different things. The Congress cannot say that Tiwari was not politically connected to them."

Before surrendering, Tiwari put up a video where he threatened to "expose" Raman Singh, who had called for his arrest. He also alleged that IT officials had harassed him to get him to "falsely implicate" Saumya Chaurasiya, former deputy secretary to Baghel. In the video, Tiwari called himself a social worker, and said neither the BIP nor the Congress had helped him, and said his ties with Chaurasiva were at a personal level, not professional.

Tiwari alleged that IT officials had told him that if he helped implicate Chaurasiya, he could become the CM, reportedly "just like Eknath Shinde in Maharashtra". Tiwari added: "I have heard in the media that Raman Singh wants me arrested. But if I am put behind bars, then Singh should be put in a cell next to me for all the corruption he did during his rule.'

Explained Live today to discuss abnormally high rainfall events

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE NEW DELHI, JULY 28

MONSOON RAINFALL this year was expected to be barely normal. Since the start of the monsoon season, rainfall, over the country as a whole, has been only seven per cent more than normal till now. And yet, the first two months of the monsoon season has already produced a number of extreme rainfall events, many of them leading to largescale devastation and destruction, as witnessed in Himachal Pradesh earlier this month, and in Gujarat last week.

> Extreme rainfall events are not surprising, nor are they uncommon. In fact, after the 2013 Uttarakhand disaster, there hasn't been a single year without at least one major extreme rainfall event. The most unusual of these were the instances in Kashmir in 2014, Chennai in 2015 and Kerala in 2018. Climate change is known to play a significant role in increasing the frequency and intensity of these extreme rainfall events. While the overall rainfall over India has not altered much over the years, the number of extremely wet days has increased. But all such events are not directly attributable to climate change. There are a lot of other factors, sometimes freak local weather patterns, also trigger these.

The abnormally high rainfall in northern India in the first two weeks of this month, and the more recent heavy downpour in Gujarat, have caught national attention and are being seen as further signs of climate change. To discuss these events, and the more wider impacts of climate

MP ex-CM Kamal Nath rolls out red carpet for 'Bageshwar Baba'

ANAND MOHAN J BHOPAL, JULY 28

WOMEN IN vellow saris handing out packets of rice along with invitations, schoolchildren preparing for a Ramayana examination, and over a thousand volunteers working overtime to erect a massive waterproof dome. The Congress in pollbound Madhya Pradesh is preparing to play host to Bageshwar Dham's head priest Dhirendra Shastri in the village of Simariya in Chhindwara district from August 5 to 7. Chhindwara is the pocket borough of state Congress president Kamal Nath who is scheduled to attend the event along with his son Nakul.

The preachings of the 27-year-old Shastri, popularly referred to as "Bageshwar Baba", are often laced with controversial statements. He routinely makes demands for the establishment of Hindu Rashtra and has organised "Ghar Wapsi" events at Bageshwar Dham, his home base, in Chhatarpur district. He was virtually an unknown figure till he made the headlines earlier this year after reportedly dodging a challenge thrown at him rationalist Shyam Manav. by

Subsequently, his political clout grew as senior political leaders such as Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan, Home Minister Narottam Mishra, and Nath met him. Shastri, whose popularity is fuelled by his social media reach, has a sizable following in the Bundelkhand region of Madhya Pradesh, with thousands attending his sermons there.

Bundelkhand has 26 Assembly seats, of which the BJP won 20 in 2013 and the Congress six. Last time around, the Congress improved its tally to 10 while the BJP's seat count came down to 14.

Given the high electoral stakes, both parties are trying to win over Shastri.

In Madhya Pradesh, the Congress has not shied away from playing the soft Hindutva card to negate the BIP's advantage and shield itself from the accusation of being an "anti-Hindu party". Kamal Nath has organised several events over the past few years to portray himself as a Hanuman bhakt, set up a massive Hanuman idol in Chhindwara, and last month oversaw the merger of a Hindutva outfit called the Bajrang Sena with the Congress.

"Over two lakh people are expected to attend the event. The 'katha' will take place on 15 acres of land that will have a waterproof dome covering six acres. Special arrangements have been made for differently abled persons, including arrangements for their stay and food. The farmers whose farms will be used to host this event will also be compensated. We even expect some celebrities to be a part of this event. This is not a political event, we are also inviting BJP leaders to attend," Congress Dharma Evam Utsav Prakosht's district incharge Anand Bakshi told The Indian Express.
