HC defers SIR plea hearing by 3 weeks over SC proceedings

Express News Service
Mumbai, October 5

THE BOMBAY High Court has deferred the hearing on a writ petition over the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) exercise in Maharashtra by three weeks after it was told that the Supreme Court (SC) will hear a plea on the issue on October 8. During the hearing on Monday, the high court said it could not hold a parallel hearing to decide whether to pass an interim order to the Election Commission of India (ECI) regarding the Maharashtra voters list and the SIR process.

A bench of Chief Justice Mahesh Chandra Tripathi and Justice Advait M Sethna was hearing a writ petition by two Mumbai residents, including Sagar Ramesh Gawai, youth president of the Vanchit Bahujan Aghadi, that raised concerns over the "collection of documents during enumeration and [voter] exclusion based on uncollectible status". The plea also sought direction to specify criteria for polling station rationalisation and ECINET specifications.

Senior advocate Ashutosh Kumbhakoni, representing the EC, told the High Court bench that the Supreme Court was already dealing with legal challenges to the SIR and had requested the high courts to not to decide on these issues for the time being, as per its November 2025 order.

The next Supreme Court hearing in the matter has been scheduled for October 8.

Advocate Prakash Ambedkar, representing the petitioners, however, argued that the Supreme Court ruling was limited to the SIR and citizenship in Bihar and that the present plea was "totally different".

Ambedkar has sought an interim direction that no voters be deleted in Maharashtra in the meantime. "We are not hearing a PIL. This is a writ petition. A request has been made by the SC, and how can the HC proceed despite that? How can we stop it, and how can this (interim direction) be done," the bench orally responded, and, on a request by the ECI lawyer, posted the hearing after three weeks.

Thane murder: Accused hired getaway vehicle

Mumbai: One of the three accused arrested by the Thane City police in connection with the murder of Sena UBT vibhag pramukh Pradeep Purnekar, Pappya Shinde, exchanged 150 calls with the two other accused before and after the murder, police told court on Monday while seeking further custody of Shinde.

It was Shinde himself who arranged for the getaway four wheeler, an Alto car, using which the other accused fled the spot, police further told the court that remanded Shinde to police custody till October 9.

Two accused identified as Nikhil Yadav and Nitesh Pawar had been arrested from near Raigad on the Mumbai – Goa highway last week. ENS

Coaching centre teachers protest over CET result 'irregularities'

Express News Service
Mumbai, October 5

SEVERAL INDEPENDENT and coaching centre teachers from across Maharashtra held a protest at Mumbai's Azad Maidan on Monday alleging irregularities in MHT-CET 2026 result. Teachers have also complained that even as the state has constituted a Special Investigation Team to probe the concerns raised by them, there has been no development on that front.

The teachers complained that the MHT-CET 2026 result and subsequent Centralised Admission Process for engineering courses were marred by discrepancies. They demanded that the MHT-CET 2027 process should not begin, until all the issues raised by them are resolved.

India wins 4 gold, one silver at astronomy olympiad

Express News Service
Mumbai, October 5

THE INDIAN team won four gold and one silver medal at the 19th International Olympiad on Astronomy and Astrophysics (IOAA), held in Vietnam's Hanoi from September 25 to October 5.

All five Indian participants won medals, with Pranjal Dixit from Hyderabad, Sumant Gupta from Delhi, Akshat Srivastava from Gurugram and Arnav Sehrawat from Faridabad winning gold medals. Harshil Amitkumar Patel from Vadodara won a silver.

The Indian team that took part in the olympiad in Hanoi. EXPRESS

With four gold medals, India finished third jointly with Vietnam in the medals tally, behind Iran and South Korea, which won five gold medals each. The competition saw participation from 307 students representing 64 countries, making it the largest IOAA so far in terms of both participating countries and students.

As per the information shared by the Homi Bhabha Center for Science Education (HBCSE), which trains selected students from India for different science Olympiads, since Indian participation started in Astronomy Olympiads in 1999, 49% of students have won gold, 35% silver and 13% bronze medals so far. In the last five years, all students have won either gold (64%) or silver (36%) medals.

Tussle within BJP, Mahayuti over candidates for MLC polls

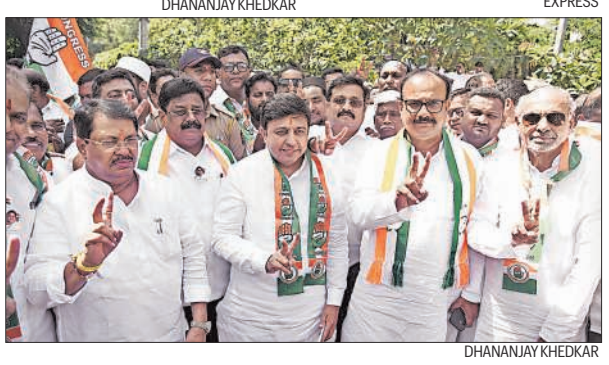

Express News Service
Mumbai, Nagpur, October 5

DHANANJAY KHEDKAR

EXPRESS

DHANANJAY KHEDKAR

(Clockwise from above) BJP's Nagpur Graduates candidate Sudhakar Kohle, accompanied by Minister Chandrashekhar Bawankule, on the day of filing nominations; former MLA Anil Sole who filed nomination as an independent candidate; Congress candidate Abhijit Wanjarri, who is seeking another term.

THE CANDIDATE selection for elections to Maharashtra Legislative Council for five graduates and teachers constituencies has triggered a dissent both within the BJP and the ruling Mahayuti.

The BJP on Sunday announced Smita Jadhav as its candidate for Pune Graduates constituency, Sudhakar Kohle for Nagpur Graduates and Kaustubh Gawade from Pune Teachers. While the party is facing an in-house challenge in Nagpur Graduate constituency, ally Shiv Sena has staked claim on Pune Teachers seat.

In Nagpur Graduates seat, former BJP MLA Anil Sole has filed nomination as an independent candidate.

Sole, who has represented the constituency earlier, told mediapersons that he was filing his nomination following requests from senior party workers and supporters.

"I have represented the Nagpur Graduates' constituency earlier. On the basis of the respect and insistence of senior workers, their affection towards me and the work I have done, I am submitting my nomination," Sole said.

Kohale, however, sought to downplay the possibility of a rebellion. Calling Sole his "guru" and an "academic and political mentor", Kohale said that the matter would be handled by the party leadership. Kohale was accompanied by Revenue Minister Chandrashekhar Bawankule, who said that Sole's resentment would be temporary.

"Even if Anil Sole is upset, his resentment will last only for some time. We will speak to him and he will withdraw his nomination," Bawankule said.

The BJP has held the graduates' constituency for decades but lost it in the 2020 election to Congress's Abhijit Wanjarri.

Meanwhile, for the Pune teachers constituency, the Shiv Sena led by Deputy Chief Minister Eknath Shinde said that it will field Mangesh Chivte as their candidate as an independent. Senior Sena leaders including Ministers Uday Samant and Bharat Gogawle have supported Mangesh Chivte's candidature. Chivte who has worked in Eknath Shinde team for several years said that the decision to field him was taken by Shiv Sena. Sources in BJP said that there is no question of backtracking on Pune teachers constituency.

Of the total five seats BJP has decided to contest on three --- Pune Graduates, Nagpur Graduates and Pune Teachers. The Nagpur Teachers constituency has been given to Shiv Sena and Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar Graduates to NCP.

The NCP led by Deputy CM Sunetra Pawar on Monday announced the candidature of sitting MLC Satish Chavan for the Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar Graduates.

MVA faces similar challenge

Meanwhile, in the Opposition Maha Vikas Aghadi, while Congress' sitting MLC Abhijit Wanjarri is seeking another term, Nitesh Karale, state spokesperson of Nationalist Congress Party (SP) is also contesting as an independent candidate.

Wanjari said that coordination among the MVA remains and discussions would continue until the withdrawal deadline.

India-US trade talks have hit a plateau, says Sitharaman

Ravi Dutta Mishra
New Delhi, October 5

FINANCE MINISTER Nirmala Sitharaman on Monday said that the India-US trade deal talks have hit a plateau, beyond which "giving or taking might be very, very difficult". This comes days after United States Trade Representative (USTR) Jamieson Greer said that signing the deal is not "imminent" as both countries have identified a "universe of items that are sticking points".

Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman. FILE

India-US trade relations are undergoing a fresh challenge ever since US President Donald Trump signed into law the Lindsey O Graham Sanctioning Russia and Iran Act of 2026, giving him the authority to impose tariffs up to 100% on countries, including India and China, that continue to purchase Russian oil and gas. Commerce Minister Piyush Goyal has been in the US since September 29 for the G20 trade ministers' meet and bilateral trade deal negotiations.

"One thing about the US agreement, which is yet to be finalised, is that it's been a hard and very rigorously negotiated agreement. The agreement negotiations are still ongoing, although we'd like to believe that both the sides have reached a plateau beyond which giving or taking might be very, very difficult. But maybe if there is room to operate from, both sides could do it," Sitharaman said at the Munich Security Conference (MSC) here.

Sitharaman said the predominant feature of the trade relations between India and the US is that the trade balance is in India's favour, adding that India is facing a steep imbalance in its trade with China. "Negotiation used to be the only platform through which countries could highlight the discrepancies... now, the imbalance has been sought to be addressed through other means, where... tariff has become weaponised. Tariff was an instrument of negotiation," she said. The Finance Ministry in its latest Monthly Economic Review had noted that "trade relations with the United States remain unsettled with the passage of the Graham Bill through the Congress and its Presidential assent."

On Friday, a day after meeting Goyal, Greer had said the talks were constructive and that India and the US were in their final phase. "At the same time, I don't think there's something imminent, but we truly have identified the universe of items that are sticking points. We're working diligently toward them. My sense is that the President, the Prime Minister, may have another call, very soon on this, just to assess progress in where we are," Greer had said at a press briefing.

Apart from the Russia-related tariffs, India is also awaiting a decision on an investigation launched by the US under yet another tariff mechanism — Section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974. The investigation is expected to establish if India has excess industrial capacity and is hurting American companies with its output. The first set of Section 301 tariffs resulted in 10% tariffs. With the new set of Section 301 tariffs expected to come in, Indian exporters have said the uncertainty is changing the nature of orders coming from the US. US buyers are no longer placing bulk orders and are diversifying imports. This could mean lower export orders for Indian businesses in the long term till the deal is not signed.

HC asks EC: If citizens are being removed, what is purpose of SIR?

Bombay HC is hearing petition against deletion of 6 names of a Goa family

Pavneet Singh Chadha
Panaji, October 5

STATING THAT the Election Commission has an obligation to ensure all citizens are on the electoral rolls, the High Court of Bombay at Goa on Monday asked what was the purpose of "this entire SIR process" if citizens are being removed from the voters' list.

"If citizens are excluded, what will we do with SIR?" the HC asked.

Hearing a petition where names of six members of a family had been deleted from the electoral rolls after their Form 8 applications for a change of address were rejected, the HC said the voter is facing "a Catch-22 situation" in this matter.

A division bench of Justices Amit S Jamsandekar and Valmiki Menezes said, "If a gentleman comes and says 'I have shifted, I am giving you [ECI] Form 8 [for change of address]'. You cannot tell him 'I will not hear you'...You can't do that... because the roll that is being referred to in Rule 21 [Registration of Electors Rules, 1960] is the existing roll, not the draft roll."

It said, "Everything must be seen qua the existing roll, otherwise the voter has absolutely no way out of this... look at this complete Catch-22 situation before him. If he gives Form 6, it is a false declaration. He gives Form 8...you say 'I cannot accept it and you must give the enumeration'. He says 'I don't want to give the enumeration'. But [Rule] 21 says you have to hear him before removing his name... not from the draft, from the original roll."

The bench said the ECI has an obligation to ensure all the citizens are on the list. "If citizens are excluded, what will we do with SIR? If citizens are being removed from the list, then what is the purpose of this entire SIR process?," it asked.

The petitioners — Paresh Salgaoncar and five members of his family — had moved to a new house in the same Santa Cruz Assembly constituency eight years ago and were instructed by the booth-level officer (BLO) to submit Form 8 for change of address.

The petitioners submitted that the Assistant Electoral Registration Officer informed them that their EPICs (Electors Photo Identity Cards) had been deleted from the rolls and consequently, their Form 8 applications could not be processed. The only recourse available was to submit Form 6 (which is for new voters) since there was no option in ERONET for reviewing or restoring the deleted EPICs.

'No voter should sign a false declaration'

"...in the enumeration form, the declarations are such that I have to declare in a pre-filled form for a ward, where I used to reside...I have to make a declaration that please include me in that same place, and I state that I am not there in any other place. How will a person make such a declaration when he knows he is in another place? The moment he makes such a declaration, he is open to prosecution," the court said.

"We are asking this. Why will he sign this? This is a false statement...Why should he give a false declaration? No voter should sign this," the bench said.

The Election Commission of India (ECI) told the court that the guidelines clearly state that if someone has not submitted the enumeration form, their name is liable to be deleted from the roll.

"In case an elector is unable to submit their filled-in enumeration form within the specified time, they may fill Form 6 along with declaration for inclusion during the claims and objection period...Ordinarily, Form 8 is by a person whose name is there in the draft roll, but says I am no longer residing here and I have shifted. He submits his Form 8 because it refers to an existing residence on the roll," the counsel for ECI said.

So, if you are not there on the draft roll only, what entry am I transferring under Form 8? I can't transfer a non-existent entry," the counsel for ECI added.

ONE NATION, ONE ELECTION BILLS

SC gave its nod, but cancelled meet with House panel later: Chairman

Express News Service
New Delhi, October 5

THE CHAIRMAN of the Joint Committee of Parliament on One Nation, One Election Bills, P P Chaudhary, on Monday said the Supreme Court on September 22 wrote to the committee confirming a meeting with its members at 4.30 pm on October 6, before deciding to cancel it on October 1 following objections raised to the proposed meeting.

The committee was scheduled to visit the court for a "local study visit", including an "informal discussion" with Chief Justice of India Surya Kant and other judges of the Supreme Court "on the issue of simultaneous elections", as per the programme circulated to the panel members.

Controversy over the proposed meeting erupted last week when Rajya Sabha MP Kapil Sibal addressed a press conference on October 1, calling the meeting "unconstitutional" as the Bills being deliberated by the committee could someday come before the court for adjudication.

The Supreme Court wrote to the committee on October 1 afternoon, cancelling the meeting, saying the matter was discussed among senior judges and it was felt that it would not be desirable to have the discussion as the Bills may become a subject of judicial review.

Speaking to reporters after a meeting of the Parliamentary committee on Monday, Chaudhary said the meeting was fixed by the Supreme Court after it was suggested by DMK MP and lawyer P Wilson. He said after the Supreme Court wrote to the committee on September 22, fixing the time of the meeting, all members were informed. Law Minister Arjun Ram Meghwal submitted "material" to the court; the lists of members and officers who would take part in the meeting were also shared.

"After eight or nine days, when some issues were raised publicly, the Supreme Court felt... it would not be proper to have the meeting, so we also informed the members. If it is not appropriate, then we should not pursue the matter," Chaudhary said. He added that committees of Parliament had interacted with the Supreme Court in the past.

Earlier in the day, the matter is learnt to have come up in the meeting of the committee. Wilson is learnt to have read out a letter explaining the matter. The DMK MP is learnt to have said that he had suggested the meeting with the court in the interest of broad-based consultation. He is learnt to have noted that the meeting could not take place due to political objections.

Right to vote, heart of our democracy, is at great peril, says Rohinton Nariman

Express News Service
New Delhi, October 5

FORMER SUPREME Court judge Justice Rohinton Fali Nariman has said that the removal of 90 lakh voters from West Bengal's electoral rolls in the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) and the way the Election Commission functions put the right to vote at "great peril."

Justice Rohinton Fali Nariman

"So the first issue I wish to flag today is that the common man today under our Constitution, and if I may say so, the heart of our Constitution, the heart of our democracy, which is the right to vote, is at great peril. And I hope that the Apex Court, an institution to which I once belonged, steps in immediately and rectifies these things. You cannot have an Election Commission which functions or malfunctions like this. It's something amazing," he said.

Justice Nariman was speaking on the subject 'The Constitution and the Common Man' at an event at Rajkumar College in Gujarat's Rajkot on Sunday.

"All of you have seen that in the West Bengal election, 90 lakh voters—it's an astounding figure—were disenfranchised," he said. Justice Nariman criticised the Supreme Court for not staying the SIR process. "Now 90 lakh voters getting disenfranchised didn't somehow move the Supreme Court enough to stay this, so that these 90 lakh voters were out when the Bengal election took place," he said. On appeals filed by those left out of the voter list, he said: "Out of those who were disenfranchised, some 22 lakh voters actually filed appeals; the others have all seemed to have accepted — they must be poor people, they must be people who don't have the wherewithal or the access to justice that the others had. And of these 22 lakh voters, some one lakh voter appeals were decided, 93% in favour of the voter."

"So can you imagine, this was a completely illegal knocking out the common man, the citizens of India, in order that a government obtains what it wants, and the result as you saw in West Bengal was something that upset the government of the day and brought in the government of the centre. These are very disturbing," he said.

In his speech, Justice Nariman also referred to The Indian Express investigation into the "rupture" inside the Election Commission. "We discover now, thanks to The Indian Express, that the two gentlemen on either side of the Chief Election Commissioner voiced objections to whatever was going on fourteen times, and somehow or the other they didn't press their right...to say that look, between the three of us, it's the majority vote that counts. So the two of us prevail over you, Chief Election Commissioner. They didn't do that. They were also appointees of the present government," he said. "Today's newspaper tells us that there is some patch-up between these three gentlemen, to the nation's great detriment, where they have come out with some common statement saying, 'yes, some of the objections you people took seem to be correct, we revert to the old Form 6', and so on and so forth," he said.

An investigation by The Indian Express reveals that questions were raised on SIR-related issues within the three-member Election Commission (EC) on record at least 14 times over the last 10 months. The objections were raised by Election Commissioners, Sukhbir Singh Sandhu and Vivek Joshi. The issues raised by the two Commissioners included changes to electoral forms and the handling of documents and data related to the revision of electoral rolls. Gyanesh Kumar is the Chief Election Commissioner. Justice Nariman said the Constitution's design of the Election Commission is part of the problem. "This Chief Election Commissioner had a fixed tenure of five years, could not be removed unless by impeachment in the same manner as a Supreme Court judge, which meant that you required a two-thirds majority in both Houses (of Parliament) present and voting in order to get rid of him. So it becomes difficult to get rid of, but the difficulty is if the appointment is in the hands of the government of the day, then this removal procedure doesn't add very much to independence or impartiality. This is the first conundrum that we face."

He said the two other commissioners "are also appointed by the government of the day, and they can only be removed with his concurrence, with the Chief Election Commissioner's concurrence."

Rahul says abuse of position by CEC proven, BJP calls claims 'full of lies'

Express News Service
New Delhi, October 5

AS CHIEF Justice of India (CJI) Surya Kant on Monday said that the Supreme Court didn't approve "any" of the modifications to Form 6, the Opposition hit out at Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar, saying that the court's observation was "proof that he was abusing his position to help the BJP".

In response, the ruling party stated that the top court's notice to the poll panel and the Centre was "democracy in action".

The Election Commission had included a new section in Form 6 that seeks the status of the applicant's parents vis-à-vis the last Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls, even though the statutory form itself has not been amended.

Lok Sabha Leader of Opposition Rahul Gandhi said it "is now established beyond doubt that Gyanesh Kumar changed Form 6 illegally and unilaterally". "This is just one more proof of him abusing his position to help the BJP," he said.

BJP spokesperson Sambit Patra termed Rahul's post on X "full of lies", an attempt to "spread anarchy in the country by propagating lies". "The CJI did not say that the Form 6 was illegal. Rahul Gandhi is lying that the Supreme Court said so... There is punishment for lying," he said.

Patra alleged that Rahul is trying to "mislead" the country on what transpired during the Supreme Court hearing and on the statement issued by the Election Commission on September 26. "On both the issues, Rahul Gandhi is trying to create anarchy in the country by misleading people so that his (political) rallies gain some strength," he said. The fact that "this entire matter" was taken to the Supreme Court and the apex court issued notices is also "democracy in action", Patra said.

The ECI called his remarks "misleading". "The order for SIR in Bihar issued on 24 June 2025 was issued with the unanimous approval of the Commission. This order has been upheld by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in its judgment dated 27 May 2026," said the ECI.
