Lashkar funds helped build Palwal mosque

Pak Bizman In Dubai Was A Conduit

Bharti.Jain@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: National Investigation Agency (NIA), which is probing a terror-funding module of Falah-i-Insaniyat Foundation (FIF) that allegedly financed the construction of a mosque at Uttawa village in Palwal, Haryana, is also looking at the possibility of a larger network of similar persons/modules spread across the country through which FIF may be channeling terror funds into India.

NIA, TOI has learnt, is examining if other Indians visiting or working in Dubai or UAE were in touch with Pakistani nationals there who may be acting as conduits for FIF terror funds being pumped into India for allegedly carrying out terrorist activities. Mohamad Salman, a key accused arrested by NIA in the case and originally from Uttawa, had come in contact with one Kamran, a Pakistani businessman, during his two visits to Dubai. Kamran in turn was in touch with the deputy chief of FIF, a proscribed affiliate of Lashkar-e-Taiba run by 26/11 mastermind Hafiz Mohammad Saeed, and was acting as a conduit for sending terror funds via hawala route to India. Apart from Salman, NIA arrested two hawala cour-riers in Delhi on September 25—Mohd Salim, resident of Daryaganj and Sajjad Abdul Wani, resident of Srinagar.

Salman told his interrogators that he had used FIF funds received through hawala for construction of a mosque in Uttawa. NIA later conducted searches at the local mosque and recovered documents confirming that nearly Rs 70 lakh of the Rs 2-21/2 crore used to construct the mosque were FIF funds received through hawala route.

State offers help to lonely 87-yr-old in Himachal

Shri.Puri@timesgroup.com

Dharamshala: In response to a recent TOI report, a team from Himachal Pradesh State Legal Services Authority visited 87-year-old Kaushalya Devi, the widow who lives alone in a village in Himachal Pradesh's Kangra district, and offered her help.

The report had highlighted the loneliness of the 87-year-old who follows a daily ritual of sticking a neatly-folded sheet of white paper on a window of her home and removing it at dawn to let her neighbours know that she did not die in her sleep at night.

On the instructions of Justice Sanjay Karol, the team met Kaushalya Devi at her home in Jaladi village, about 20 km from Shahpur town, on Monday.

Kaushalya Devi lost her husband, a daily-wage labourer, about eight years ago. Her son, Budhi Singh, 47, left home about five years ago. One of her two daughters is married and lives in Chamba and the other passed away many years ago.

India and France mull tri-service military games

Defence minister Nirmala Sitharaman during a visit to a production facility of French aerospace major Dassault Aviation near Paris

Rajat.Pandit@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: India and France have resolved to soon operationalise their bilateral military logistics pact inked in March to provide refuelling, repair and berthing facilities to each other's warships and aircraft, even as the two countries discuss the possibility of holding a joint tri-service exercise sometime in 2019-2020.

This came up during defence minister Nirmala Sitharaman's visit to France on October 11-12 for the first annual defence dialogue with her French counterpart Florence Parly, who also handed over a letter from President Emmanuel Macron for Prime Minister Narendra Modi to reaffirm the expanding bilateral strategic partnership, said sources on Monday.

The logistics pact with France, the second such reciprocal agreement after the first one with the US, will allow Indian warships access to French bases at the Reunion Islands near Madagascar and Djibouti on the Horn of Africa. France, incidentally, also has a naval air station in Abu Dhabi (UAE). Both the pacts are crucial for India to expand its naval footprint to counter China's strategic moves in the region.

Exploring legal options to book Cong MLA: Guj CM

Rohan.Dua@timesgroup.com

Lucknow: Gujarat CM Vijay Rupani on Monday said his government was exploring legal options to book "a Congress MLA in his state" for allegedly inciting migrant workers from Uttar Pradesh and Bihar, leading to their mass exodus in the past two weeks.

Rupani did not name the MLA but was replying to a query on a video that allegedly showed Congress legislator Alpesh Thakor blaming a non-Gujarati for the rape of a 14-month old girl.

"The speech is being made part of evidence. We are exploring legal options against it. The controversy was Congress-sponsored. It has failed. Ironically, the man who engineered this was Congress' Bihar secretary but he continued to target people from the state," Rupani, in Lucknow to invite UP CM Yogi Adityanath for inauguration of Sardar Vallabhai Patel's statue in Sabarmati, said. He met representatives of Gujarat Samaj who sought protection for migrants working in Gujarat.

Wani a victim of relentless violence in J&K: Mehbooba

Srinagar: Former Jammu & Kashmir chief minister Mehbooba Mufti on Monday described Hizbul Mujahideen militant Manan Bashir Wani, who was killed in a gun-battle with security forces, as a "victim of relentless violence in Kashmir".

The PDP president demanded withdrawal of cases against three Aligarh Muslim University students from the Valley who were booked after they allegedly tried to hold a prayer meeting for Wani on Friday. "It will be a travesty to punish them for remembering their former colleague who was a victim of relentless violence in Kashmir," Mehbooba tweeted.

Twenty-seven-year-old Wani, who was pursuing a Ph.D course in allied geology at AMU, had quit the university and joined militant ranks in January.

The three Kashmiri students were booked for allegedly raising "anti-India" slogans and trying to hold a prayer meeting for the Hizbul "commander", a day after he was killed in a gun battle with security forces in north Kashmir's Handwara area. AGENCIES

2 of 4 captains who flew world's longest non-stop flight were of Indian origin

Saurabh.Sinha@timesgroup.com

New York: At least two Indian-origin captains were among the four pilots who flew the first New York-Singapore flight, the world's longest non-stop, last Friday. Singapore Airlines (SIA) had the inaugural Changi-Newark (EWR) last Thursday and the return leg was operated a day later. While sources say both the commanders of the first Newark-Singapore non-stop on the Airbus A350 ultra-long-range (ULR) are of Indian origin, SIA did not comment on that.

"There were four pilots operating the inaugural Newark-Singapore flight. Of the four, three are Singaporeans and one is Malaysian.

Lack of opportunities is one of the factors that draws Indian pilots overseas

Their names and ranking are: Captains IR Chaudhury and Ruben Gamoo and senior first officers Maxx Tan and KH Lim," a SIA spokesperson said.

With a flying time of almost 19 hours to cover 16,800 km, this non-stop has two sets of pilots with each set having a Captain and a first officer (FO). SIA, which has almost 2,000 pilots, did not say how many of them are of Indian origin.

Indian pilots have been proving their mettle globally and foreign airlines are getting to fly the latest aircraft. The A350 ULR, for instance, is the latest bird in the sky with SIA its launch customer that started commercial operations using this plane last week.

Earlier this year, TOI had reported that at least 60 Indian origin pilots are flying the A380 with airlines like Emirates and Etihad. "While monetary aspect is obviously there when we go to fly for foreign airlines, the other reason is also that we get a chance of fly aircraft that are not on the radar of Indian airlines. Kingfisher had ordered five A380s but it closed before taking delivery of any of them," said an Indian pilot.

Officials of some big foreign airlines say on condition of not being identified that there has been a spurt in job applications from pilots of wide body aircraft of the only two Indian carriers that currently operate planes like the A330 and Boeing 777, 787 and 747. Jet and Air India are the only airlines here with both single and twin aisle planes and they are both facing severe financial turbulence.

All other Indian carriers as of now have only single aisle Boeing 737 and Airbus A320 family planes apart from turboprops.
